PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power
Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

FIRST COMMUNION

First Communion for Notre Dame and St. Patrick's Schools were cancelled due to Covid-19 and will be rescheduled in the fall. Any family that wishes their child to do their First Communion sooner, can call the parish office to make arrangements to have it done during the summer.

PLEASE SIGN UP FOR WEEKEND MASSES ON THE WEBSITE

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Catholics are reminded that during this extraordinary time, they are dispensed from their obligation to attend Sunday Mass. People are encouraged to make an Act of Spiritual Communion with the following prayer:

My Jesus,
I believe that you
are present in the most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot now
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

THANK YOU

A big shout out to the Knights of Columbus who, despite the cancellation of the Chili Cook off, were able to raise $40,000 for the 3 young children, Zoe, Tanika, and Maeve. With the help of our wonderful community the Knights raised money from a bottle drive through Caledonia BIA, donation drives at Zehrs and Home Hardware and an online auction. Thank you to all the business and companies that donated for the online auction.

KNOW THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Dear friends, in the Gospel of today we are presented again with three parables, two of which are closely linked in meaning but with slight difference. The first two parables using the images of hidden treasure and a pearl of great price are addressed to individuals who with joy and assurance sell everything else to possess something precious. The third parable speaks of the realistic situation, similar to one about the wheat and the darnel from previous Sunday, about the Christian sense of time and the separation process at the end of time. Here perhaps the church quietly explains the existence of people both good and bad. The first and second parables are in effect saying that to know God and to live according to the Gospel are the most precious things in life. Through Jesus and the Gospel we come to know and understand what the real meaning of life is and what the most important things in life are. The comparison here is based on obtaining something of extremely high value. The dynamic described is that nothing will get in the way of obtaining an object of extremely high value if one desiring it feels it must be acquired at any cost. Both the parables demand renunciation, risk and commitment. The emphasis is not so much on the pain of renunciation as on the supreme value of the reward they will obtain. Jesus advocates the total reversal of the past in order to gain a wonderful future. Are we willing to accept this challenge?

A Summer Prayer

Father, Creator of all,
thank you for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.
Thank you for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation.
Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace
of the summer season.
Draw me closer to you this summer.
Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am
or what I am doing.
Warm my soul
with the awareness of your presence
and light my path
with your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy your creation,
create in me a pure heart
and a hunger and a thirst for you.

Amen.
