PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

RECONCILIATION

The ordinary way of attaining forgiveness for sins is participating in individual and integral confession and absolution. At this time it is sufficient to make a sincere act of contrition and commit to participating in the Sacrament of Reconciliation as soon as possible when conditions allow.

MAY-THE MONTH OF OUR MOTHER

May is the month that is traditionally dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. Pope Francis has asked that, during this month, families be encouraged to pray the Rosary together. I have provided a link to the prayers that the Holy Father has asked to be offered with the Rosary. We know that families have often been referred to as the 'domestic church'. This takes on greater significance during this time of pandemic when people are not able to gather in their parish churches for prayer and worship. There is the Catholic tradition of having holy water, images of Christ, His mother, and the saints, in prominent places in the home. These sacramentals can help families create spaces for family prayer.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Catholics are reminded that during this extraordinary time, they are dispensed from their obligation to attend Sunday Mass. People are encouraged to make an Act of Spiritual Communion with the following prayer:

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

SUNDAY OFFERINGS

Dear Parishioners,
I pray that you are keeping safe and healthy during this time of pandemic, isolation and social distancing. Please know that I continue to celebrate weekday mass and pray for our parish and for each of you. It is our faith and our sense of responsibility to protect each other that will help us get through this.

While our opportunity to gather together for Mass has changed, we are thankful that technology has permitted us to still celebrate our Sunday Mass together through YouTube and our website. We are all adjusting how we gather and how we communicate.

While the pandemic continues around us, so too are we all facing challenges including financial, mental health, and wellbeing. While we are not at Mass weekly, our Parish expenses continue and without our regular collection and donations, we face a decline in revenue. I ask you to give consideration to continued financial support for St. Patrick's in this time of crisis. We have established a system to allow contributions through credit card, as well as through cash or cheque contributions. Please just contact the Parish office should you wish to make a one time or weekly contribution. At this time, we are not able to accept E-Transfer.

Please know that I am only a phone call away should you wish to reach out for a conversation or spiritual or wellbeing support. While we cannot meet in person, we all recognize the importance of being there for each other.

God Bless you all
Fr Jerome Mascarenhas ocd
Pastor

HOW CAN WE KNOW THE WAY?

Dear friends, today's liturgy tells us that Jesus is our way, truth and life and we will receive the fullness of life in and through him. True living comes from developing ourselves to become all that we can be. Our life receives the full meaning when we are able to give ourselves to the service of others and find meaning in that service. Our true living comes by opening ourselves to God and to the world by becoming what we can be. The close identification of Jesus with God the Father is the theme of today's Gospel passage. At the same time Jesus invites his followers to identify themselves with him and his mission. Thus, in the gospel of today taken from the last discourse of Jesus we hear him say that he is the way, the truth and the life. Those who believe in him will inherit eternal life. He at the same time stresses on his unity with the Father and our need to trust in him.
