PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power
Cast into hell Satan and all the
evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

CREATION CARE CORNER

God has not abandoned the world. It is His will that His design and our hope for it will be realized through our co-operation in restoring its original harmony. In our own time we are witnessing a growth of an ecological awareness, which needs to be encouraged, so that it will lead to practical programs and initiatives. An awareness of the relationship between God and humankind brings a fuller sense of the importance of the relationship between human beings and the natural environment, which is God’s creation and which God entrusted to us to guard with wisdom and love. Patriarch Bartholemew

SING TO THE LORD ALL THE EARTH

Calling all singers and musicians. Do you like to sing? Do you play a musical instrument?

St. Patrick’s Music Ministry is nearing a critical shortage of members and we are appealing to our congregation to share their musical gifts and talents to ensure that all four of St. Patrick’s Choirs continue to provide the necessary musical leadership for all our Masses. If you are drawn to one particular music style, or are undecided please reach out and talk with us. With three different Mass times, practice options and learning styles, you are sure to find a fit.

We invite you to experience the “Joy of praising God through music!”

THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

Dear friends, in today’s Gospel Jesus assures the Apostles that he will be with them no matter what hardships they face. He teaches them that authentic Christian living is about meeting the challenges of the day and not of just thinking when the end will come. The Gospel presents us the scene where Jesus and his disciples were looking at Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, at the object of his mission. The disciples were looking with admiration their beautiful artistic Temple of Jerusalem. Jesus then spoke of its destruction and told them that not a stone would remain on the other. This would certainly have shocked his disciples. Jesus uses this episode to teach about the end of the world to come and about the persecutions the disciples will have to endure. In the Old Testament the Prophets generally referred to the Justice of God and to a lesser extent on Mercy and forgiveness. Hence we have the harsh words of the prophet Malachi in the first reading speaking to the stubborn Israelites about their destruction. But the prophet is confident that those who are faithful to God will be saved. In the second reading St Paul advises the people of Thessalonica to work hard and be an example for others and to earn their livelihood by working peacefully and quietly as they prepare for the day of the Lord. He reminds the people how he supported himself by his hard work. They are called upon to imitate Paul and stop bothering others
