PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power
Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

CREATION CARE CORNER

Landfill: Have you ever thought about how long the stuff you throw away would take to decompose? It is surprising to know that some of our everyday items may take up to more than 1,000 years to decompose. In fact, some may not decompose at all! That's why it is best to recycle these instead of throwing them to the landfill...another way to take better care of God's Creation.

Prayer of perseverance

Dear friends the theme that pervades through the readings of today is Prayer and more specifically, the prayer of Petition. Prayer is understood as the raising of our heart and soul to God. We place before him our needs and our aspirations and trust that the Lord will grant our requests. The prayer of Petition is typically a Christian prayer. In this prayer we place ourselves humbly before our Lord and submit ourselves to him totally. This is the prayer of Jesus and it is the prayer he taught his disciples. Today's Readings tell us about prayer and the need to persevere in our prayers. Prayer is our means of communication with God and it is the means to experience our closeness to him. At the same time Prayer is personal which comes from our heart and is a means to express our feelings and emotions and placed them before God. It is also a way to show faith in the God to which we believe in. In the Gospel of today Luke tells us that it important to pray always without becoming weary of prayer. Here we have the story of the unjust judge and a widow. The judge is typically a powerful and influential person, whereas the widow is fragile, vulnerable and helpless. Her persistence and constant pleading helps her to receive the right judgment. In the first reading we have the example of the power of prayer that led the Israelites to their victory in war.
