PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power
Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

Sing to the Lord All the Earth

Calling all singers and musicians. Do you like to sing? Do you play a musical instrument?

St. Patrick's Music Ministry is nearing a critical shortage of members and we are appealing to our congregation to share their musical gifts and talents to ensure that all four of St. Patrick's Choirs continue to provide the necessary musical leadership for all our Masses. If you are drawn to one particular music style, or are undecided please reach out and talk with us. With three different Mass times, practice options and learning styles, you are sure to find a fit.

We invite you to experience the "Joy of praising God through music!"

Justice and Righteousness

Dear friends, all the readings of today emphasize the concept of Justice. Justice is understood as certain situation of mind, whereby a man does what he ought to do in the circumstances confronting him. Justice is primarily concerned with conduct in relation to others, especially with regard to the rights of others. In a larger sense justice is not only giving to others their rights, but involves the active duty of establishing their rights. God's justice, or righteousness, is founded in His essential nature. But, just as with man, it is not something abstract, but is seen in His relation to the world. God's justice is not merely gracious, but redemptive. It not simply apportions rights, it establishes righteousness. It is by the forgiveness of sins that God establishes righteousness, and this is the supreme task of justice. In this context we are called upon to choose between God and worldly goods. In the Gospel we have an unjust administrator dealing with a just Manger and the way to use the material goods with an eye on Kingdom of God. Here Jesus was not admiring the dishonesty and unfaithfulness of the manager but he was admiring the man's efforts to solve his problems. He was seeking relationships and friendships to be welcomed later. In the first reading we have the prophet instructing the people how they have to be just and sincere in their dealing with others.
