PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power
Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

ACCESSIBILITY FUNDRAISING PROJECT

Bids and Bites is Oct 5th, 2019

Tickets $20 Doors open 5:00pm Appetizers/finger foods at 5:30. There will be a cash bar. Bidding starts at 6:30 Tickets available after mass from committee members until Sept. 29 or at the church office during business hours. (Monday-CLOSED), Tuesday-Friday-9:30am-12:30pm.

Parishioners we NEED your support.

For Bids and Bites to be successful we need you to attend and hope you will bring friends and relatives. If you can't attend, please don't buy a ticket as this is how we determine the number of people for food. We would be happy to accept a donation instead.

Donations are needed for the auction and these can be in the form of gift cards, service vouchers, cash or scratch lottery tickets.

Products for donation could be home/patio/pool accessories; toys/games for the young and old. Tax receipts available for invoices of $25 or over. Donations/prizes will be accepted until Sept 29. Any questions please contact Marie Stoneman at stonemandm@gmail.com

As we celebrate the success of our collective efforts with the renovation fund, we also recognize that a final push for donations to the end of September, will help us reduce our loan amount even more. Please consider your ability to contribute a little extra in the coming weeks. The second collection for the Renovation Fund will be this weekend, September 7 and 8 at the end of mass.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

Dear friends, Today's liturgy points us towards the economy of salvation. The word economy coming from the Greek origin tells us of the household management. The economy of salvation tells us how God manages his household and how he places us into his loving care. All of us have an invitation to come closer to God and commit ourselves to him. But we have to balance our considerations and make decision about our commitment, our self-control and our detachment. In the Gospel of today Jesus tells how much it costs us to be his true disciple and enter into his divine economy. What does it cost us to enter into the divine household? He makes strong demands of us so that we are prepared to remain true to him till the end. He asks to put our commitments to him above all things including the family ties and remain close to him. He expects each one of his disciple to carry his daily cross and follow him. We have to count the cost to be with him. The first reading of today taken from the book of Wisdom tells us that commitment to God, even when his plan lies beyond our human understanding, is the true way to wisdom. Fr. Jerome
