PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness
And snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray,
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts,
By the divine power Cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits,
Who wander throughout the world
Seeking the ruin of souls.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Catholics are reminded that during this extraordinary time, they are dispensed from their obligation to attend Sunday Mass. People are encouraged to make an Act of Spiritual Communion with the following prayer:

My Jesus,
 I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot now

receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually
into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

FIRST COMMUNION

First Communion for Notre Dame and St. Patrick's Schools were cancelled due to Covid-19 and will be rescheduled in the fall. Any family that wishes their child to do their First Communion sooner, can call the parish office to make arrangements to have it done during the summer.

THE FEAST OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Is celebrated on 16 July. It draws our attention to the way in which she is manifested to the Carmelite Order and the way in which Carmelites see her. We know that the hermit brothers on Mount Carmel dedicated an oratory to St Mary early in the thirteenth century. In medieval times that was the equivalent of their declaring that she is their Patron who will look after them, and whom they in turn will serve. Later when the Carmelites came to Europe and joined the ranks of the mendicant friars, other images of Mary arose among them. They took of course the notion of Mother common to all Christians of the East and West. They also saw her as Sister, and honoured her as the Most Pure Virgin, that is the Virgin of undivided heart. From this time too, Carmelites were much taken by the beauty of Mary, so that a favourite invocation was "Mother and Beauty of Carmel."

A significant Carmelite devotion to Our Lady is through the Brown Scapular. The Brown Scapular of the Carmelite Order has been very popular since the fifteenth century.

The scapular is a symbol, that is, a sign that carries a deeper meaning. In a letter to the whole Carmelite Order, the Superiors General, J. Chalmers and C. Maccise wrote in 2001:

"reflection on the Scapular symbolism implies that we think out and make our own the fact that Mary is our Patroness, who cares for us as Mother and Sister. Our Mother nurtures the divine life within us and teaches us the way to God. Our Sister walks with us in the journey of transformation, inviting us to make ours her own response: 'Oh let it what you have said be done to me' (Luke 1:38). But patronage is a two-way relationship. We receive Mary's care; in turn we are called upon to imitate her and to honour her through fidelity to her Son."

This year, the feast day is Tuesday July 16, and mass will be celebrated at 9 am and the Scapulars will be blessed and distributed. If you are not able to attend this mass, scapulars will be available afterwards.

THE WORD OF GOD

Dear friends, Fifteenth Sunday readings tell us that the Word of God is compared to seed that sprouts and brings forth new life. All of our life, entire creation is groaning in anticipation of being all we can become. God's spirit is infused within human beings where it brings forth divine fruits. The farmer is aware that he has to prepare the ground, weed it and water it to produce good fruit. We are invited to sow the seed of the Gospel with our lives. In the Gospel of today we have the parable of the sower. The farmer goes out to sow the seed and it is placed in varying types of soil. A person who hears the word of God and understands it reaps a rich and fruitful harvest. In the first reading Prophet Isaiah speaks of the power of the word of God. It is like the rain that comes to the earth to make it fertile and fruitful by germinating the seed for the sower and bread for the ones who eat, so also the word of God is meant to bear plentiful fruit in men's heart. It brings life and joy where there was only death and sorrow. In the second reading Paul refers to the fact that all humans and all creation suffer because of sin and he assures us that the present sufferings are nothing compared to future glory. Material creation though subject to corruption, will eventually share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.
